

As a Leadership Advisor in the Compass program, you will be a mentor to one Youth Leader for the duration of the program. You will be responsible for attending monthly workshops and community events with your partner, and providing support and guidance to ensure their success through the program and beyond.

COMPASS LEADERSHIP ADVISOR - FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Is there an age limit to becoming a Leadership Advisor?

You must be 30 years of age or younger. If you are over 30 and would like to get involved with the Compass program, please contact Anne (anne@amicicharity.org or 416-588-8026) to learn about additional opportunities.

Is there a minimum time commitment?

In order for the program to run successfully, we require all applicants commit to the duration of the program, which runs from mid-October 2017 to mid-June 2018. Please only apply if you are able to commit to the program for the entire 9 months.

In addition to the application form, is there anything else you require?

To become a Leadership Advisor you will require a Criminal Record Check. The application form also requires you upload an up-to-date resume and the names and contact details of two references.

What does the application process look like?

Applications are accepted until 11:59pm on September 18, 2017. Applicants are subject to space limited availability. Amici will contact all applicants within two weeks of receipt of the application and will inform successful applicants if they have been selected for an interview. For those candidates selected for an interview, following the interview, Amici will conduct reference checks. Once the process is complete, Amici will inform candidates in writing if their application has been successful and the role will be subject to a completed Volunteer Agreement.

I live outside of the GTA; can I apply?

At this time we are limited to offering the program in Toronto. Due to the frequency of workshops, only those who live within reasonable traveling distance will be able to participate.

Will any training or orientation be offered?

Yes, we provide orientation sessions and a weekend training retreat for all Leadership Advisors.

What else should I be thinking about before I apply to become a volunteer Leadership Advisor?

Please take time to decide if you are able to commit to the 9-month program. If this commitment won't work with your schedule right now we do recruit for other volunteer opportunities throughout the year. Click HERE to find out more.
